Why Can't They Stop:

Addiction and New Drug Trends

Many times when someone has an addiction to drugs or alcohol we often ask, "Why don't they just stop?" or "Can't they see how this is hurting their children?" But addiction is much deeper than a choice. In this presentation we'll look at the science behind addiction and how it affects us in everyday life. We'll also discuss new drug trends including synthetic drugs and prescription drug use. This session will also look at media influences on drug and alcohol use.
